Chapter Four

The Ministry of the Ordained

In Chapter 4, each level of conference is presented in a consistent structuring:

- 5X1. Purpose
- 5X2. Powers and Duties (General Conference: only “Powers”)
- 5X3. Membership
- 5X4. Conference session
- 5X5. Records & Archives
- 5X6. Conference Agencies

5X7. Properties

According to this unifying structure, existing elements were reordered, and where needed and useful (e.g. a purpose statement for each conference level) added. Because Jurisdictional Conferences only exist in the US, the content has been moved into the new Part VII, but the unifying structuring has been used also within the new Part VII.

Section II. Jurisdictional Conferences (¶¶ 508-509)

Section III. Central Conferences (¶¶ 511-517)

Section IV. Provisional Central Conferences (¶¶ 521-527)

Section V. Annual Conferences (¶¶ 531-539)

Section VI. Provisional Annual Conferences (¶¶ 541-547)

Section VII. District Conferences (¶¶ 551)

Section VIII. Missions (¶¶ 561-564)

Section IX. Joining The United Methodist Church (¶¶ 571)

Chapter Five Administrative Order

For Chapter 5, the Standing Committee presents some samples of its ongoing work. The core values for the revision work are:

- Alignment (with the mission);
- Global (in scope);
- Simplification (of the various elements);
- Focus (on the specifics);
- Creativity (of the ministries);
- Relevance (to the context);
- Consistency (of the format).

The main focus of these samples is: not “how” an agency should work, but “why” the work of an agency is essential to creating a Methodist ethos and presence in diverse settings across the world. Therefore, the ongoing work on chapter 5 is developing the following minimum description for each section:

XX1. Provision (with scriptural / theological / Wesleyan grounding);

XX2. Purpose / mission;

XX3. Goals / strategies;

XX4. Amenability and Accountability.

Additional elements (e.g. membership; organizational, or legal, etc.) will be needed for a finalized draft. They may be contained in GC-R paragraphs (General Conference-Regulations) within this new Part VI, or may be moved to the new Part VII (Additional Organization and Administration).
