

Community Developers Program Seed Grants
(Grant maximum $10,000)

Program Description: The Community Developers Program (CDP) is a network of racial-ethnic congregations and communities throughout the United States committed to advancing the church's capacity to be in mission in partnership with the communities where they are located. Work includes advocacy, economic development, youth organizing, addressing local needs, creating an awareness of national and international causes and effects.

The Community Developers Program is administered through the General Board of Global Ministries. Other General Board of Global Ministries staff and consultants assist by conducting site visits, carrying out training responsibilities, and in developing and planning strategies for addressing global and national issues.

Program Objectives:

To support racial-ethnic congregations with discerning the willingness and ability to become a Community Developers site. Including, but not limited to the following activities:

- Community mapping
- Congregation and community engagement
- Community assessment
- Creating and expanding community partnerships
- Recruiting volunteers to work towards making systemic changes
- Asset based community development
- Advocacy and social justice.

Instructions:

Answer all questions as completely as possible in the space provided. DO NOT write "SEE ATTACHED" in the place of an answer.

You may attach additional information to the completed application form.

Complete the Budget Summary and include the anticipated contribution that the Annual Conference will make to the proposed ministry. It is expected that the congregation will contribute at least 10% of the requested amount.

Approval by the Administrative body of the sponsoring United Methodist Church must be indicated by the appropriate signatures.

Maximum Grant Amount: $10,000.00

Section 4: Child Safety Policy

Global Ministries and the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry require grantees who work with children and youth (under 18 years old) when using funds provided by either agency to either adopt their Child Safety Policy or have its own policy, which substantially complies with and contains the core tenants set forth in the agencies’ Child Safety Policy. If your organization is applying for funding for work even in part with children and youth (under 18 years old), please attach your organization's Child Safety Policy or agree that you will adopt the Child Safety Policy of Global Ministries and the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry.

Click here to access the Global Ministries and General Board of Higher Education and Ministry Child Safety Policy.

- Applicant agrees to adopt the Global Ministries and General Board of Higher Education and Ministry Child Safety Policy.
- Applicant attaches its own Child Safety Policy, which meets Global Ministries' and General Board of Higher Education and Ministry's requirements.
- Applicant confirms this proposal does not involve any work with children and youth (under 18 years old).
