

Native American Ministry Sunday Grants

(Grant maximum $10,000)

Program Description: Native American Ministries Sunday is one of the six special church-wide Sunday offerings. Through the Native American Ministries Sunday Offering, the General Board of Global Ministries provides grant funding for strengthening and development of ministries with Native Americans in annual conferences and target cities of the Native American Ministry program of Global Ministries. Grants are provided to assist local congregations and annual conferences to live into the four focus areas of ministries adopted at the 2008 General Conference. Grants can be used for outreach and community ministries, revitalization and discipleship formation, salary supplement, and building repairs and expansions.

Program Objectives:

Assist local congregations and annual conferences to live into the mission.

Support to outreach and community ministries, revitalization and discipleship formation, salary supplement, and building repairs and expansions.

Instructions:

Upon funding of your grant, your ministry/organization will be required to submit an annual progress/assessment report.

No matching funds required for Native American Ministry Sunday Grants.

Maximum Grant Amount: $10,000.00
