Farm Project Strengthens Communities in Congo's North Katanga

The Yambasu Agriculture Initiative is helping communities in North Katanga, Congo, build a more secure and sustainable future through integrated farming. The Kamisamba Farm project combines poultry, crops, irrigation, nutrition programs, job creation, and hands-on training for students, benefiting an estimated 80,000 people. By improving food security, supporting vulnerable families, creating livelihoods, and teaching climate-smart agricultural practices, the project is becoming a model for resilient community development across the region.

THIS ADVENT, GIVE WITH PURPOSE.

As educational institutions, health care organizations, sustainable livelihoods programs, refugee support agencies, and peace efforts continue to receive less and less U.S. funding, vulnerable families and communities all around the world are put at further risk. Join us in responding to this moment with compassion, courage, and lasting efforts.

Give a gift that feeds families and helps build sustainable livelihoods through the Yambasu Agriculture Initiative (Advance #982188).
